BEYOND THE RAINBOW

After a challenging year of cancellations and uncertainty, we are excited that the Sonoma County Pride celebration returns with hope and positivity! As a couple of Sonoma County raised kids in the 90's, we sought and found family within our local LGBTQI+ community. We deeply recognize and appreciate how important Pride Celebrations and Activities are to us as individuals and as a community. It is an immense privilege to celebrate Sonoma County Pride with you all!

Sonoma County Pride has also had its challenges during COVID. After cancelling our 2020 Parade and Festival, we suffered the loss of our President, JD Donovan. She has been deeply missed and in our thoughts throughout every step of the 2021 planning. Raising the flag on the Rosenberg Building is always one of our personal highlights of Pride that we shared. She will be missed, but not forgotten, as we raise the rainbow flags around Sonoma County.

This year we wanted to offer a variety of activities to celebrate the diversity and various interests here in Sonoma County. From our weekly "Friends of Dorothy - Social & Community Conversation" on Zoom, to the re-imagined "Beyond the Rainbow" Parade at Graton Resort & Casino, to our month long Scavenger Hunt, to the "Rainbow City Concert" at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds with Todrick Hall, we truly hope we can provide community, peace, and celebration for everyone. We have been blessed by our sponsors who stepped up to the challenge of supporting and planning COVID compliant events. None of our plans would be able to come to life without their help, as well as with the help of hundreds of volunteers who join our team during June. THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR SUPPORT!

I (Chris) also have to give a special shout out to my husband, Joseph, who gives me constant support and encouragement. If there were more people like you in this world, it would be a better place. I'm glad we are on the same team in life and thank you for all your support during pride and all the planning that takes place.

Y'all

MEANS
ALL!

BEYOND THE RAINBOW: SURVIVING, REVIVING, AND THRIVING

This year's theme, "Beyond the Rainbow: Surviving, Reviving, and Thriving" takes inspiration from THE WIZARD OF OZ to offer renewal and support to the LGBTQ community. Sonoma County Pride's Secretary, Cheryl Kabanuck puts the beloved film's lessons into perspective. "There's no place like home being back together with our community. Courage leads us here, knowledge is how we survive and heart is what keeps us together."

Since the worldwide pandemic forced the cancellation of 2020 Pride events everywhere, it was important to find a unifying theme to recognize we're not all in the same space mentally and emotionally. The past year has been incredibly challenging for everyone and each of us faced different struggles. The focus for Sonoma County Pride 2021 is on the mental, physical and emotional health and wellness of community members. Vice President Grace Villafuerte emphasizes, "While some of us are reviving and thriving, some of us are still focused on surviving. Wherever we are on our journey, we hope Sonoma County Pride 2021 will offer each of us a feeling of community, pride, and peace. We strive to not only reach our unique rainbows – our dreams and inner strengths, but we look to go Beyond the Rainbow!"

According to Director of Logistics Brian Rogers, "Those of us who survived this surreal year gained new respect and meaning for the prime lesson Dorothy learned in Oz: 'There's no place like home.' Now that we have nearly SURVIVED the pandemic, let's embrace that hopeful spirit as we REVIVE together and support one another so we can once again THRIVE."

SUNDAY FRIENDS & FITNESS

SPONSORED BY LOUD+CLEAR™

Our “Sunday Friends & Fitness” events are designed to provide an alternative activity & physically active component to Pride, encourage safe socializing, and promote healthy, family-friendly activities.

JUNE 6 – SUGARLOAF STATE PARK HIKE

6.3 Miles Challenging Hike lead by Laurie Lynn Hogan

7 am Meet time in the parking lot

7:30 am Start hike

“This 6.3-mile hike will dazzle your senses and challenge your body as we take the scenic back trails to traverse +/- 1600 feet of elevation in a loop trail to and from Bald Mountain Sugarloaf Ridge State Park.”

Our guide, Laurie Lynn, grew up hiking Colorado’s Rocky Mountains with her dad. Today, she brings her lifelong love of hiking to the Epic Trail Challenge, an endurance hike and fundraising event that benefits Santa Rosa Community Health.

JUNE 13 – FAMILY FRIENDLY HIKE at FOOTHILLS PARK

Hosted by North Bay LGBTQI+ Families (Contact: Sal)

10 am–12 pm at Foothill Regional Park in Windsor

Our All Ages Family Pride Hike will be led by C.L. Teravainen (He/Him), a queer and Trans California Naturalist.

A former environmental educator with Sonoma County Regional Parks, C.L. enjoys sharing his love of art and the outdoors with those around him. When not exploring the outdoors he enjoys spending time as a plant and cat dad while working on his own art. C.L. has also facilitated the North Bay LGBTQI Families monthly social and family gathering for gender-expansive youth under 12.

Regional Parks staff will be present and available at this event to interact with families, and will bring some nature-related show and tell items from the park for kids to explore. While families should bring water and snacks, there will be some additional light refreshments on hand.

Family Justice Center Sonoma County

2275 Mendocino Avenue, Santa Rosa CA 95403

<https://www.fjcsc.org/>

The Family Justice Center or FJC provides support to victims of Domestic Violence, Child Abuse, Elder Abuse, Sexual Assault, Stalking, Human Trafficking, and Homeless Victims of Crime. The FJC serves as a one-stop shop for victims, where multiple service providers and agencies work together under one roof. Without the FJC a survivor may have to go to over 23 places to receive services, all while telling their story over and over again in settings that may be scary or intimidating. But at the FJC, a survivor tells their story to a trained navigator in a safe and secure location who makes the process understandable and as comfortable as possible. Then, a community of co-located professionals in victim advocacy, civil law, mental health, prosecution, law enforcement, and more work together through the FJC to coordinate the best way to help serve the survivor--providing comprehensive, continuous, and seamless care all in one place. The FJC also provides immigration support for survivors of domestic violence and other crimes and various holistic services like yoga, art therapy, massage therapy, and reiki, helping survivors overcome their trauma, reclaim their futures, and restore hope. Want to learn more? Visit us at FJCSC.org.

Grab your ruby slippers and click your heels three times to transport yourself to Sonoma County Pride's "Behind the Curtain" Dinner & Wizard of Oz Sing-Along! We are transforming Sally Tomatoes into a magical wonderland, and you are invited to come to watch this classic movie musical with all the words to the songs displayed on the screen for you and your friends to sing along!

JAN WAHL

Follow the Yellow Brick Road and sing along with Dorothy, Auntie Em, Toto, The Tin Man, Scarecrow, Cowardly Lion, and the rest of the characters as they make their way to the enchanting Emerald City. Master of Ceremonies for the evening's festivities will be the SF Bay Times' Jan Wahl, two-time Emmy Award winner, television and radio broadcaster, film critic, and Hollywood historian. Excited for the event, "Your Favorite Movie Critic" Wahl rhapsodizes, "What a perfect time, and perfect movie, to celebrate life, Pride and gorgeous Sonoma County!" Concurring is Grace Villafuerte, Sonoma County Pride's VP, who adds "After a year of the pandemic, it will be such a relief to come together, while still following covid guidelines, to watch such an iconic movie for our community, sit outdoors enjoying a Sonoma County summer, and sing along with such familiar songs!" Wahl will lead the crowd through the evening's audience participation events, which will include a trivia quiz and a movie-themed costume contest. Dress as your favorite Wizard of Oz character and be prepared to test your Wizard of Oz knowledge for fun and exciting prizes. Check out Jan Wahl's weekly column "Off The Wahl" every week at the San Francisco Bay Times.

TODRICK HALL

From original written and choreographed music videos, such as Virgin America's safety video, the opening number to The 2014 Kids Choice Awards, and upcoming Target spots, Todrick Hall has mastered the art of blending live experiences with social media. He recently helped choreograph "Blow," one of the videos off of Beyonce's critically acclaimed visual album and was featured in Forbes' "30 under 30" list. With a hyper-engaged audience fueled by his breakout appearance on American Idol, and that has grown with his ingenious YouTube musical parodies, Todrick is rapidly becoming one of the next great powerhouses in entertainment.

RAINBOW CITY CONCERT

MORGAN MCMICHAELS

Thomas White made his grand debut on May 28th, 1981 in Alexandria, Scotland. As a child, Thomas was known for his effervescent personality and kindness to others, something that has carried into adulthood. In 2001, Thomas began his drag career as a joke, but quickly discovered how impactful being a drag performer could be to the LGBTQ community. Fueled by a passion for the art of drag, an activist voice and impressed with the work of others, Thomas developed his stage persona, Morgan McMichaels.

Morgan is a consummate performer, she knows how to work a crowd and is a favorite among the Southern California drag scene. Morgan is best known for her chameleon like ability to become anyone she seeks to emulate and is known for her portrayals of Pink, Joan Collins, Boy George, and David Bowie.

Morgan competed in Ru Paul's Drag Race Season 2 and All Stars Season 3, while she did not win either competition, she quickly became a fan favorite known for her sass, competitive nature, talent and authenticity. Morgan's work ethic and drive to be the best has opened many doors, including the opportunity to perform alongside Lady Gaga, P!nk, Joan Collins and Lisa Rinna and to be featured on Wow Presents, Drag U, Bravo Television, Entertainment Tonight, and Germany's Next Top Model.
